Hello,

THE DUNCAN RAND ONE-ACT PLAY FESTIVAL 2020, YOUTH SECTION 4th -8th JULY, ADULT SECTION 11th -16th JULY

I am writing to invite you to enter this year's Duncan Rand Festival. We expect the festival to run as shown above, but the actual start date will depend on the number of entries. The youth awards will be presented after the last performance and adjudication on Friday 8th July, and up to three productions will return for the adult finals night that will be on Saturday 16th July and we will work back from that date.

Never heard of us?!

HOW IT ALL BEGAN...

Some 62 years ago, with Duncan Rand at the helm, and several other members in hot pursuit, after a lot of effort and against all advice, Medway Little Theatre was launched. 45 years ago, Duncan Rand decided to start a one-act festival, for groups in Kent with the help of Luke Taylor, an experienced hand at organising such events. After Duncan's death in 1981 it was suggested that the festival be named after him, as a tribute to his driving force and guiding hand in the development of this theatre, and in memory of a sincere and lovable man.

PROMOTING INTERACTION

Medway Little Theatre's annual One-Act Festival promotes interaction with our fellow enthusiasts from all over Kent in a worthwhile and rewarding enterprise. We wish to invite the talent of Kent and Medway to participate in the hope of continuing the legacy of the Duncan Rand. The festival brings together groups both new and familiar in the spirit of friendly competition. We hope you will join us and take this opportunity to forge new friendships, to produce and perform in a real theatre, and showcase your talent in front of a live audience.

We are aware that groups must schedule events such as these well in advance therefore I am contacting you with the following dates, contact details, and entry fees and requirements. Should this be of interest to you we would love to hear from you. Should you have any further questions please contact us at mltduncanrand@outlook.com

Kind regards,

Kerrie Thompson
Festival Secretary
